Sub: Public Services – Classification of posts in accordance with grade pays in the pay bands / scales – Issue of instructions – Reg.

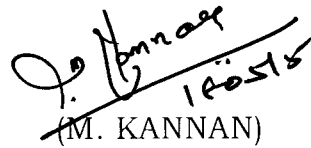

Ref: G.O.Ms.No.50 dated 11.05.2009 of D.P. & A.R. (Personnel Wing), Puducherry.

--oo0oo--

Instructions of the Government of India have been communicated vide reference cited on the classification of posts in accordance with grade pays in the pay bands / scales. Accordingly, many Departments have amended the Recruitment Rules corresponding to the classification of posts and are strictly following the earmarked reservation to the said class of post.

2. Of late, it has come to the notice of the Government from various quarters that certain Departments are not following the said guidelines and making recruitment devoid of the instructions of the Government of India. It is reiterated that the aforesaid classification of post has been issued under Article 309 of the Constitution of India and therefore has to be followed scrupulously. The Heads of Departments are therefore requested to notify the vacancies with appropriate classification strictly in accordance with the Orders communicated by this Department vide reference cited even if the revised classification of posts are yet to be incorporated in the Recruitment Rules of the concerned posts.
